Habakkuk 2 (NIV)

¹ I will stand at my watch and station myself on the ramparts; I will look to see what he will say to me, and what answer I am to give to this complaint.

The Lord's Answer

² Then the Lord replied:

“Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it. ³ For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay.

⁶ “Will not all of them taunt him with ridicule and scorn, saying,

“Woe to him who piles up stolen goods and makes himself wealthy by extortion! How long must this go on?⁷ Will not your creditors suddenly arise? Will they not wake up and make you tremble? Then you will become their prey. ⁸ Because you have plundered many nations, the peoples who are left will plunder you. For you have shed human blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

²⁰ The Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him.
